Stuffed with minced meat and vegetable. Served with vinegar and garlic dip. Beijing dumplings is the dish for social Gatherings, weddings and all festivals.

The pastry is individually made by hand. The whole family would join in to make enough dumplings for the event. Sometimes, it becomes the opportunity for females to show how skillful and fast they are in cooking which is a 'must' for a good wife. For celebrations, it would be made into the shape of yuenbao, a shoe shape goldingot circulated in ancient China symbolising good luck and good fortune.
