

OOTY

Indulge in the exotic and tantalising flavours of South India at London's newest culinary extravaganza – Ooty. The name traces its origin to an idyllic hill-station in the state of Tamil Nadu, Udthagamandalam (Ooty) that even today transports its visitors to an era bygone. Ooty, the restaurant, aims to capture this very essence with an ambiance and décor that is an apt amalgamation of the legacy of the British Raj with the plush contemporary finish of modern day London.

The menu features delicacies from all corners of South India that have been carefully crafted to retain their authenticity and presented uniquely.

A creative selection of dishes and sensational aromas and flavours promise to give you an experience of South Indian cuisine in a way London has never seen before.
