How does one of the world's richest men drink his margaritas? He starts of with an extra añejo tequila hand selected from the Cuervo family's private selection, then pairs it with Gran Marnier's special edition 100th anniversary liqueur. And he has it personally made right there at his table, naturally.
Jose Cuervo Reserva De La Familia Tequila, Gran Marnier Cuvee Du Centenaire, Fresh Lime, Agave. Hand shaken at your table and served in a gold shaker.
