

Mellben Seafood – From humble beginnings of a small stall along Alexandra Road in 1988 to a popular household name for local seafood dining. Opened in the year of dragon and named ‘龍海鮮螃蟹王’, Mellben Seafood has expanded to various outlets and earned itself a reputation for serving consistently good sumptuous seafood with quality ingredients.

Incorporating Singaporean identity into our home-grown recipes, Mellben Seafood has created many renowned signature dishes. One of which is the "Claypot Crab Vermicelli Soup," a dish served in a luscious, savory, thick milky broth infused with pure natural essence of crabs. The dish has earned Mellben Seafood a reputation in the forefront of the Chinese culinary world of seafood cuisine.

In 2006, Mellben Seafood opened their Toa Payoh outlet under the guidance of Kelly and Chef Mun, where they honed their team's skills to perfection, creating a reputation that has put them on the map. With many customers returning to them because of Kelly herself, TPY Mellben Seafood rebranded their outlet in 2017 with a new promise and a touch of local feel, renaming themselves "Kelly Jie Seafood" in recognition of her dedication and perseverance.

Today, Kelly Jie Seafood is a household name among seafood lovers. Regulars greet Kelly affectionately by the term "Jie", or "sister" in English. There is a word around town that you have yet to experience Mellben Seafood if you did not slurp up their signature Claypot Crab Vermicelli Soup, where sweet crab meat and vermicelli are served in a thick, milky broth. Kelly Jie's Chilli Crab, the famous local delight, also reaches a heavenly status.

Indulge in a truly gastronomic and unique dining experience that will leave you wanting more. With Kelly's passion for serving quality seafood dishes and Chef Mun's culinary expertise, you are in for a treat that you will not forget. Come and experience the magic of Kelly Jie Seafood today!
