Tenuta Di Sesta, Brunello di Montalcino D.O.C.G. (TUSCANY)

Brunello is one of leading wines in Italy and highly demanded in the world. Made around the medieval town of Montalcino exclusively with Sangiovese grape that ripens better in these hills than anywhere else and it is produced by over 200 growers.

"Brunello di Montalcino" requires, by law to have min. 4 years ageing before released, and 5 years for the Riserva, with min. 2 in barrels or oaks. It is a dry red vivacious wine, elegant with harmonic body and flavour, a persistent nose, with signs of wood. A good vintage well-made Brunello, can age for up to 50 years, if kept in the correct conditions.

Aresca, Barolo D.O.C.G. (PIEDMONT)

Among the best respected in the world, Barolo wines must age a minimum of 3 years before released. Made from 100% Nebbiolo grape, grown in small areas around the town of Barolo in Piedmont.

Barolo is a typically big wine, rich and full bodied, taking on a brick red colour with age. High acidity, 'mouth puckering' tannins & distinct bouquet of chocolate with black cherries, liquorice & earthy flavours, evolve in the gamy characteristics for which this Italian Classic is famous for. Enjoy with game, red meats, truffle dishes, red sauce pasta & other rich meals. It requires to be filtering into a decanter to open and aerate, prior to be much better enjoyed.

2017 Tenuta San Guido, Sassicaia, Bolgheri D.O.C. (TUSCANY) - (Limited Availability)

Sassicaia 2017 is a Super-Tuscan, a powerful, precise and elegant blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Cabernet Franc. Mouth-watering with blackberry pie, cherry, wild grilled herbs, minty, spicy and savoury with incredible intensity finishing long with a fine tannic grip. This 2017 vintage received a rating of 97/100 points by Wine Enthusiast and 96/100 points by James Suckling

550

Farina, Amarone Della Valpolicella D.O.C.G. (VENETO)

Amarone is again another high quality Italian wine among the very best. It is made in small quantities in the same area and by the same grapes of the Valpolicella; Corvina, Rondinella and Molinara, but with a much higher, sophisticated and time consuming tecnic, applied to create this highly sought wine.

Amarone has an astonishingly complex nose; Warm, vinous, with stewed cherries, licorice, and a host of other magic flavours. Captivating and marvellous on the palate, the wine is lush with intense fruit flavours and a hint of spices.

The tannins are velvety and the finish amazingly persistent

Chiappini, Bolgheri Superiore, Felciaino (TUSCANY)

Felciaino, a 'Young' brother of Guado de'Gemoli 2009 that gained 100/100 points worldwide by wine enthusiast. Boutique Organic winery situated in Bolgheri (Tuscany's eastern coast, a similar environment of famous Bordeaux), producing high quality Cabernet/Merlot. In 60 years, only 2 other Great wines have reached same status in the world: Sassicaia & Ornellaia.

89

Farina, Ripasso Valpolicella (VENETO)

Great Red Wine obtained mainly by Corvina, Rondinella & Molinara grapes with a first fermentation made in autumn soon after the harvest. At the beginning of spring it is re-fermented (ri-passato) on the Amarone skins still soaked in wine. It is then rested in Slavonian oak barrels followed by bottle ageing. This process gives the wine a greater structure, complexity, intense peppery notes, elegant aromas and deeper colour. Ideal with meat dishes and mature cheese. A wine with Amarone taste, but at a lower price.

Fantini, Edizione Cinque Autoctoni (ITALY)

This wine received 99 points by Luca Maroni, one of the best Italian reds in 2018. This wine is a blend of the best fruits from the best vineyards that Fantini have. 33% Montepulciano, 30% Primitivo grapes, 25% Sangiovese, 7% Negroamaro and 5% Malvasianera. The Montepulciano and Sangiovese grapes are from Abruzzi while Negroamaro and Malvasianera are grown in southern Puglia. This is a massive wine, it has a great structure, good balance between alcohol and freshness, Velvety tannins, very persistent with a long finish.

Aglianico, Taurasi D.O.C.G., Antica Hirpinia (CAMPANHA)

Taurasi also sits up there with the best. It is a magnificent wine, dark red in colour, full bodied and powerful on the palate and grows with ageing. Mainly made by the noble Aglianico grape variety around the town of "Taurasi", an area west of Naples. The best Taurasi are usually 100% Aglianico. Must age at least 3 years with a min 12 months in wood before release. It has great ageing potential, and it is best to drink after several years for optimal enjoyment.
