THE NICHOLAS TREADWELL COLLECTION

For more than half a century Nicholas Treadwell (*1937) – the famous british excentric and influential London gallerist – has been collecting art that is based on the theme of human experience and everyday life exaggerated. Being an Icon himself he created his unique pink universe full of art, peace, love and loughter wherever he went from London via Bradford to Aigen Schlägl and finally Vienna.

A selection of sculptures – a special interest of Mr.Treadwell – from this unique and truly outstanding collection of more than 650 works are now shown at the Salonplafond including works by artists such as:

Tim Noble and Sue Webster, Kevin Harrison, Robert Knight, Saskia de Boer and Kevin Harlow.
