

All of the food on our menu is cooked and served as a 'bistro style service' - This means as and when the food is ready, it will be delivered. We don't take orders for 'starters and 'mains' as the size of our kitchen limits us to serving space. 'We don't do fast food! We do great food, as fast as we can!' Everything is fresh daily and due to our storage space, once it's sold out - its gone until our next available delivery...
