O White

El Ninot de Paper Blanco, Spain	£19.50
A fresh and fruity Sauvignon and Viura blend from South-East Spain.
La Lancelotta Gavi, Italy (VG)	£27.00
Gavi is the white wine of North-West Italy and has lovely stone fruit notes. Italy's answer to Chablis.
Cuvée Vedilhan Viognier, France	£24.50
Single estate Viognier which is rich and aromatic.
Henners Native Grace Chardonnay, England (VG)	£38.50
The Brits have raised their game! Pure, poised, unoaked.
Domaine de la Motte Petit Chablis, France	£38.50
A Petit Chablis is slightly riper and fuller than its big brother. A stunner in its own right.
Valle de Oron Verdejo, Spain	£26.50
If you're looking for an alternative to Sauvignon, look no further than Rueda and Verdejo!
La Val Finca Arantei Albarino, Spain (VG)	£36.50
This is a rare single estate Albarino just 4km for the Galician coast.
Crowded House Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand	£35.50
A premium Marlborough Sauvignon that is as quintessentially Kiwi as the 80's band it references.
Sancerre Domaine Rossignole, France	£36.00
Classic Sauvignon Blanc from the Loire Valley. Incredible minerality with lemongrass flavours.
Domaine Guy Saumaize, Pouilly-Fuissé Grande Réserve, France (VG)	£51.00
Rich, buttery and delicious, a game changer with a roast chicken.

O Rose

Florie Roy Rene, France	£31.00
A Provence style Rose, delicate but structured and great with food.
By Ott Rosé, Côtes de Provence, France	£39.00
Affordable Cru Classé, this is the pinnacle of Provence rosé.

O Red

El Ninot Tinto, Syrah Monstrell, Spain	£19.50
A well balanced quaffer, unoaked and displaying lovely black fruit notes and black pepper.
Uva Non Grata Gamay, France	£22.00
A no-rules Beaujolais style red. Unashamedly enjoyable and head-scratchingly good.
Vieille Monnaie Pinot Noir, France	£28.00
You would pay a kings ransom for another glass of this silky Pinot Noir.
Ontañón Rioja Crianza, Spain	£31.00
From a 5th generation family winery, famous in the region for its outstanding wines.
Le Quartier du Cru Beaujolais Fleurie, France (VG)	£32.50
A cru Beaujolais which is pleasingly rich and developed. Forest floor, truffle rich and dark fruits.
McManis Petit Sirah, USA	£36.00
Vivid purple in colour with aromas of blackberry caramel and toffee on the nose.
Uggiano Chianti Fagiano Reserva, Italy (VG)	£33.00
This award winner was picked as "critics choice" from 1000's of entries in a blind taste competition.
Château Milon 'Cuvée Caprice' Saint-Émilion, France (VG)	£43.00
Classic Right-Bank Bordeaux, cigar smoke and cedar box notes and real depth of flavour.
Cuvée Papale Chateaneuf De Pape, France (VG)	£49.00
At the very South of the Rhone you'll find this Grenache based powerhouse.
Riondo Amarone della Valpolicella, Italy	£50.00
It's the drying of the grapes that give an Amarone more alcohol, more power and richer flavour.
Château Castelbruck, 'Cuvée Bruyères', Margaux, France	£70.00
What a way to finish the list - a stunner of a Margaux. Robust and savoury with complex blackcurrant, plum and herbal characters, supple tannins and a long, rich finish.
