Allergen & Intolerance Notice

Please be aware that the small nature of our kitchen means we cannot guarantee any of our products will be free of trace amounts of any ingredient. We cannot accept responsibility for any allergic reactions having informed you of this. However, should you suffer from gluten intolerance, rather than a direct allergy, we find that removing the bun from our burgers and leaving out the Cajun seasoning should allow you to enjoy our burgers and hot dogs without any discomfort. Our beef burgers contain Worcestershire sauce which contains fish. For people with fish allergies, we can make your burger without Worcestershire Sauce, but again, due to the size of the kitchen we cannot guarantee that no trace of the sauce is in the burger. Please let a member of staff know your condition and we can advise you how to choose your meal.
