Shrouded in legend as to its origins, the famous “Wiener Schnitzel” rose to fame in the late 19th century - as Emperor Franz Joseph I. of Austria’s favourite dish.

“If the ‘Kaiser’ fancies this dish, lets have some too”, thought his people - and soon a number of variants came about; the Schnitzel became an indispensable pillar of Austrian-German cuisine.

Our Schnitzels at Brotzeit are made with bread crumbs imported from Germany, and only top quality meats. That, we believe, makes all the difference.
