DID YOU KNOW ...

... that during the well-known blue hour twilight (> 5500 K), light has a predominantly blue shade, which our brain automatically adapts to, so that the shift in colour goes unnoticed.

But if you concentrate on the colour of your steak, you may observe that it supposedly loses its warm red and looks greyish - therefore one may easily mistake the gradation.

Already noticed this effect? If not, take your plate inside for a moment and look at the meat's colour ... (< 5500 K).

You will be surprised!

LIMITED EDITION

For an upgrade there is a 600°C hot „Bierstachel“ available. It caramelises the beer, keeps the foam warm and the fluid cold, thus giving a completely new experience in taste. +3,5

Or let your Eisbock „on the table“ slowly drip into your glass, ... visual pleasure before the actual flavour caresses your sense of taste! The concentration of the beer to its essence and alcohol content is defined by the „dripping time“: 15,9

Aecht Schlenkerla Rauchbier

Germany smoked Märzen, THE classic smoked beer, amber, spicy with some taste of smoked ham, with a touch of caramel.
5,1% 500ml 8,5

Shipwreck - Brewdog

Scotland, Strong Ale, pale golden beer with malty taste and intense fruity character due to agave, fine peach and mangos. Tastes smokey, peaty, many nuances due to storage in whiskey barrels. Label shows some black bars where the brewer took out his anger about a broken partnership
13,8% 330ml 25

Geuze Mariage - Parfait

Belgian speciality, one year old meets three years old (ripened in a barrel, Lambic with spontaneous fermentation, which brings in a slightly milky-vinegar-sour note) fruity and tangy, with a bitter aftertaste and a touch of malt and oak barrel.
8% 375ml 12,5

Michaeli - Riegele

Germany hoppy Märzen in a champagne bottle, with natural cork, golden colour, tastes after lychee, grapefruit and tangerine bouquet, beautifully embedded in the malt flavour, velvety soft texture, a very noble beer with
6%, 750ml 56

Cocoa Wonderland - Thornbridge

England, Porter, creamy black chocolate brew with flavours of caramel, vanilla and banana, with a slight bitter note.
6,8% 330ml 12,5

Schorschbock 2014 -Schorschbräu

Germany Strong Ale, Eisbock, with a deep brown. Sealing wax cork and consecutively numbered bottles, for collectors (n/1000). 7 months of storage in oak barrels result in an almost oily sweet-heavy aroma, flavours of dark fruits and bourbon. After multiple freezing and skimming of the evolving ice crystals flavour and alcohol concentrate. Thus several litres of beer reduce down to 200ml with 34%. drink it like gorgeous whisky with a note of port!
34% 200ml 55
