

LA CAVE DE C'EST BON

A SPECIAL NOTE FROM PETER SCUDAMORE - SMITH, FRIEND AND MASTER WINE.

C'est Bon is French, and in fact means "it is good". Our French wines respect the territory that creates the dishes you eat. For centuries, French chefs have massaged their local food tastes to pair to their regional wines. Simple harmony happens if you go there, and our wine list creator does that as a regular visitor to provincial France. Here we bring you those wines with a little stretch to include our local owners' also, thankfully Frenchvarietals.

Our wine cellar is growing. Being truly French based, we respect the major wine production regions: Champagne, Bordeaux, the Loire Valley, Burgundy and the Rhône Valley.

Find your favourite drop in bigger than 750 ml bottles. That's a magnum (2 bottles), jeroboam (4 bottles), methusalem (8 bottles); big party sizes of salmanazar (1 dozen or 12), balthazar (16 bottles) or nebuchenezzar (20 bottles).

So for a party of:

- 4 - have a magnum (mag-numm)
- 8 - have a jeroboam(jero-bo-oam)
- 16 - have a methusalem(metuse-a-lem)
- 24 - have a salmanazar(sal-manna-czar)
- 32 – have a balthazar (bal-ta-czar)
- 40 - have a nebuchenezzar (nebb-a-can-nezzar)

WHY BIG BOTTLES

Large bottles age better than 750 ml due to the cork supporting a larger volume of wine; corks admit oxygen to mature their contents consequently large bottles age slower. And large bottles often hang around longer, conserving their contents to present for your better drinking. Premium wines of precise origins mature much better in magnums especially while carefully stored: locate our selections aged at 14oC.
